Empathy Map

Create an empathy map to understand your customer/user from four perspectives - what they Say, Think, Do, and Feel - in relation to the problem your project addresses. This helps the team build a customer-centric solution.

Personal name (Role / User Type)

1. SAYS:

- "The enrollment process in college is very confusing and takes a lot of time."
- "I want to see all available courses in one place with details."
- "I don't know if I have successfully enrolled or not."
- "I have to stand in long queues to get course information."

2. THINKS:

- "Is this course suitable for my career?"
- "What if I enroll in the wrong course by mistake?"
- "I wish there was a simple online system to enroll."
- "Will I get confirmation and study materials after enrollment?"

3. DOES:

- Searches for course details on notice boards and websites.
- Asks seniors and admin staff for enrollment procedures.
- Fills manual forms for course enrollment.
- Tries to track enrolled courses using notebooks.

4. FEELS:

- Frustrated due to long and manual enrollment process.
- Confused about which course to choose.
- Anxious about missing enrollment deadlines.
- Happy and relieved when enrollment is done easily online.
